Charlie's 2023

Overview

Charlie's is a creative co-working space, networking and events hub, and leading international industry incubator.

It is an intersection point for the Australian film & television community and the US and international screen industries to come together, meet, network, and possibly toss around ideas on how to work together.

Charlie's was created to provide a softer landing for Australians when they first arrived in Los Angeles and to provide ongoing access into Hollywood and to help open doors.

An essential part of AiF's ongoing mission is to provide a safe, creative and supportive community for Australians and our international mates working in Los Angeles. Since the beginning of AiF over 20 years ago, it has been devoted to providing content creators a sense of community and exclusive access to the industry through its screenings and various social and career development programs.

This application is for access to a hotdesk at Charlie's. Organic introductions to other residents and AiF members who pass through the offices are encouraged and facilitated depending on who's scheduled to come in. Charlie's is not able to make direct introductions to managers or agents or studio executives for applicants.

Charlie's will be closed from May 8th to May 13th.
